Morgan Austin

It came to my attention,
something was happening
inside me.

Pain, discomfort, a daily urge
to change, to adapt.

The vital need to release all
those feelings on my comic.

Couldn't escape it, stopped
fighting against it.
It was time to let evolution
to change me.

Morgan.

...And the time came.

From here forward, I was no longer satisfied with the way my girls looked like.

Their faces didn't show all the emotions I wanted to transmit.

Uncomfortable as it gets, something needed to change, and that was me.

This are the ones I worked on several times while developing new eyes, noses, lips and hair.

Never posted this ones before, you, proud owner of this ebook, only you can enjoy them.

OOOOPS!

CRONCH!

See you again next year.

It came to my attention,
something was happening
inside me.

Pain, discomfort, a daily urge
to change, to adapt.

The vital need to release all
those feelings on my comic.

Couldn't escape it, stopped
fighting against it.
It was time to let evolution
to change me.

Morgan.
